Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to honor a very special couple who have embarked upon a new life together; and

Whereas, this legislative body recognizes the significance of the institution of marriage as a vital foundation of American society and wholeheartedly believes that a successful union can be achieved only through a loving relationship of mutual honor, respect, and trust; and

Whereas, Chad Aaron Wilson and Crystal Lynn Bush were joined in Holy Matrimony by exchanging their sacred nuptial vows during a beautiful wedding ceremony officiated by the Reverend Jay Self of Columbia, Missouri, on December 14, 2002, at the First Christian Church in Paris; and

Whereas, Chad and Crystal Wilson are entering this new chapter in their lives with hope and optimism for success that can surely be achieved through the strength of the love so deep in their hearts; and

Whereas, Chad and Crystal Wilson rejoice in the confidence that their love and commitment will grow each and every day of their marriage; and

Whereas, Chad Wilson, an employee of Har-La-Mar Incorporated, graduated from Columbia College and earned a Master's degree at the University of Missouri-Columbia, while Crystal, an employee of the Division of Family Services in Jefferson City, graduated from Columbia College; and

Whereas, Chad and Crystal's dream of becoming husband and wife received the blessings, love, and encouragement of their wedding party whose members included their parents, Jack and Joanne Bush of Paris and Marion "Shorty" and Mary Jo Wilson of Mexico; the Matron of Honor, Becky Blackaby of Paris; the flower girl, Brie Ensor, niece of the groom; the Best Man, Shorty Wilson, father of the groom; and the ring bearers, Bryce and Brant Ensor, nephews of the groom:
